

- ★ a change (to the Constitution)
- ★ an addition (to the Constitution)

The 20th Amendment to the Constitution.

AMENDMENT 20

ratified January 23, 1933)

Section 1. The terms of the President and Vice President shall end at noon on the 20th day of January, of years in which such terms of Senators and Representatives ended if this article had not been ratified; and the terms of their successors shall then begin.

Section 2. The Congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall